

Rainer Geiger
Deputy Director
OECD

Rainer Geiger is a graduate of the University of Heidelberg in Germany and Columbia Law School in New York, United States with a PhD and an advanced law degree. He started his professional career as a Counselor in the Ministry of Economics and Economic Cooperation in Germany and as a Secretary of the Finance Commission of the Conference on International Economic Co-operation in Paris. In 1977, he joined OECD in Paris, France, where he has held various positions and is currently the Deputy Director for Financial and Enterprise Affairs and Head of the Middle East and North Africa Investment Program. Mr. Geiger is Co-Chair of the Investment Compact Pact for South East Europe. He is an Associate Professor of International economic law at the University of Paris I, Pantheon-Sorbonne. He has published numerous articles on international economic law issues. He is fluent in German, English, French and Spanish. Mr. Geiger is a member of the German-American Lawyer Association and the French Society of International Law.